

EXHIBITION PAR-MUTUELS MAKE NEW RECORD

DESPITE BAD WEATHER, GATE RECEIPTS BIG

Largest Attendance in Fair History Was Marked Up On Friday

Breaking attendance and par-mutuel records for any one day of the fair in the history of the Edmonton Exhibition association's 35 summer shows, the 1937 fair week ended when gates plunged shut at midnight Saturday with a record of 23,338. The high figure was featured by an all-time high figure despite heavy rain Wednesday and Thursday, which cut deeply into receipts and which in itself created a bad weather record for the exhibition.

Gate turnstiles counted a total attendance for the week of 116,887 as compared to 127,327 for four weeks in 1936.

BETTING BIGGER
Par-mutuel receipts on race-track betting for the week totaled $205,724, a $12,280 increase on average receipts for 1936.

Largest attendance for any one day in the exhibition association's history was recorded Friday, the crowd numbering 23,338. The figure for the corresponding day of the week last year was 20,882.

Betting on the bang-bang Saturday afternoon race, the par-mutuel receipts totals, returns being $565,000. Betting on the same day in 1936 totaled $325,544.

For the sake of comparison, attendance and par-mutuel figures for 1937 and 1936 fair weeks are given below.

SEES BENEFITS
While two days of heavy rain cut deeply into attendance, George H. Ball, president of the Edmonton Exhibition Association, emphasized that the heavy downpour and the rain which he stated over the week-end that the precipitation had benefited both horticultural and general public as far as better crop conditions in the long run than if we had had fine weather.

THANKS PATRONS
"Directors and officials of the association want to thank citizens of Edmonton and residents of the surrounding districts for the fine work in which they turned out this year and supported the summer fair. Without their co-operation there would be no fair week."

GREEN RALLIES MEN TO FACE LEWIS FIGHT
WASHINGTON, July 19.—William Green, chairman of the American Federation of Labor's executive council, today told Aug. 21 in Atlantic City, N.J., to prepare a full campaign against John L. Lewis.

Expressing satisfaction with the federation's membership campaign so far, Green said the council would increase its gains and combat Lewis, CIO chairman.

Meanwhile, members of the United Mine Workers international union assembled for a meeting Tuesday to decide whether to oust Green from the union for alleged "treason."

SHOOTING RAPIDS TAKES LEARNING
MONTREAL, July 19.—Take it from Captain J. Alfred Gauthier, who starts his 58th season of river navigation this week, it doesn't take long to learn how to shoot rapids in a steamer, just about 20 years.

The captain knows "pretty near most" all about rapids and how to handle them now. He has been shooting rapids on the Toronto-Montreal run for 58 years now.

Starting on the boats in 1919, the captain now took the rapids for the first time with the "La Cullin," a new 100-ton steamer.

He depends greatly on his unimpaired eyesight and—though he admits it—his nerves.

"Give me a few feet of water, a sturdy boat and I'll show you rapids," he claims.

STRATOSPHERE FLIGHT ENDS IN DISASTER

Balloons Breaks Into Flame Just As Picard Makes Escape

LANSING, Iowa, July 19.—Dr. Jean Picard's first flight in his new craft, buoyed by multiple balloons, terminated in a hazardous free fall landing early yesterday.

The gondola of "The Picard," which he cut away the upper half of the 90-foot balloons sustaining it, was seen to burst into flames a moment after Dr. Picard left from it and climbed down in an isolated valley nine miles from the launching place.

LEARNED MUCH
The scientist said he believed the flight, which melted the metal of the gondola and destroyed the instruments within, might have been caused by the TNT detonation by which he cut away the upper half of the 90-foot balloons sustaining it.

Dr. Picard came down six hours after he took off at 11:05 a.m. M.S.T. from Rochester, Minn., 19 miles north-east.

Notwithstanding the misfortune, the balloonist termed his flight an "educational" experience.

LEARNED MUCH
He said he learned much from it. He sought to determine the feasibility of using a large number of balloons instead of a single large one.

INDIAN RAIL WRECK DEAD SET AT 107

Hint of Sabotage Behind Worst Disaster in Country's History

PATNA, India, July 19.—Death list in the wreck of the Calcutta express reached 107 persons yesterday, as authorities continued their investigation of one of the worst rail disasters in India's history.

The dead included 40 women and one child. Sixty-five persons were injured. The engine and six coaches of the express left the rails and plunged over an embankment 13 miles from Patna Saturday.

MAY BE MORE
Relief workers recovered the bodies of 24 persons and a coach of the first two coaches where it was feared more bodies may be found.

First unofficial estimates said the disaster was a monstrous one, a railroad official described the scene as "like any battle field." The first two coaches were mangled and buried beneath the wreckage of the two behind them. Scores were killed instantly. Others were mangled or burned.

KEPT TO RAILS
Europeans were in the rear two coaches which did not derail. Uninjured, they gave quick first aid to the injured natives.

Two hundred and 24 persons were killed and 26 injured May 22, 1935, when a troop and passenger train collided at Gwalior, India, in the worst rail disaster officially recorded.

Railway officials investigated the possibility of sabotage or a road-block, but found no evidence. Several alleged saboteurs in the past have been hanged. Others were mangled or burned.

110 KILLED IN CHINESE BLAST
SHANGHAI, July 19.—One hundred and ten persons were reported killed and more than 300 injured following an explosion in the Kiang Kai munitions factory near Chungking in southern Szechwan province late Saturday.

Several hundred buildings nearby were destroyed by the explosion, the cause of which was unknown.

Val Marie Delegates Amused At Estimate Of Their Crop Value

SASKATOON, July 19.—Delegates to the annual general convention of the C.C.F. party held a five-minute field day at the expense of Hon. J. G. Gardiner, as the convention moved to adjournment Saturday.

One of the delegates from the district of Val Marie stood upon a statement credited to the Federal Minister of Agriculture saying that farmers on the irrigation project at Val Marie had there were only two or three gardens immediately under the dam which showed any promise.

Fields of wheat were short and poor where the land had been flooded once and in other parts there was no crop.

As the debate closed, one of the women delegates rose to remark, "Apparently, the federal minister of agriculture rather than the territory that was all well."

A delegate from the Val Marie district said that the dam had never been opened to let water flow across the international boundary line according to the agreement between the two governments involved.

GAS MASKS USELESS FOR BEARDED MEN

British United Press
LONDON, July 19.—Every household in England will soon receive a booklet explaining the perils of gas attacks and describing the precautions which should be taken in the event of an air raid.

Eventually it is hoped that every man, woman and child in the country will have a gas mask. Millions have been produced already, but millions more are needed.

While all these preparations are going on there is bad news for men with beards. A new gas expert has announced that it is difficult to fit a bearded man with a gas mask, and should an emergency arise three weeks hence, beards will be a long way from being the alternative of cutting off their heads of getting gassed.

Phantom Plane Over London Now Explained

OFFICER ON LEAVE Wanted To Show How Weak Defences Were

LONDON, July 18.—A night-flying "phantom plane" which has been worrying nervous Londoners as it zoomed over the city may be in charge of a Royal Air Force officer, it was reported today.

The Sunday Express, in a front-page story said yesterday an unknown person telephoned the newspaper office last night.

OFFICER ON LEAVE
"I am the person who is searching for. I am an officer on leave, making the fight for the purpose of showing how vulnerable London is in air attack and how inadequate is our defence."

"I have taken off tonight from North London, without attempting escape. Friday night I was pursued by three night bombers which could not hit me although my machine was not fast, but I am a proficient flier. My flight over Hendon airfield demonstrates enemy aircraft could even approach the main R.A.F. station without hindrance. I have now been recalled to my duties but promise a grand finale."

ASKED PROOF
The Express reporter asked proof of the identity of the voice but the officer refused, although he said he would meet the reporter at the telephone booth.

The reporter met the uniformed man there and asked for the stunt. The flier told the reporter he had planned to drop four bombs on St. Paul's, the House of Parliament and the air ministry to show how easy it was to do. The flier said he would not reveal his name or his rank confidentially to the reporter who raised the air stream and was informed a man of that name was in the service.

Local Soccer Stars Now Play Vancouver In West Semi-Finals

Bobby Graham Leads Scorers With Two Goals—Davidson and Johnson Get One Each—Play Again Tonight

Exclusive to Edmonton Bulletin

CALGARY, July 19.—Paced by Davidson, left back, who opened the scoring eight minutes after the start by a sensational goal from the 70-yard range, Edmonton Clives qualified to oppose Johnston's Nationals of Vancouver in the Alberta-British Columbia Dominion football playoff by administering a 4-3 triumph over Calgary Calles in the provincial final here Saturday night.

The largest crowd to see a soccer game at the Stadium since this summer lauded the Clives as the better soccer machine as they retired from the field at the conclusion of a highly interesting contest, in which a bevy of Calles rally fell short one goal. Clives played a nifty brand of soccer and were worthy of their success.

They opposed the British Columbia champions here Monday and Tuesday nights, total goals to decide who moves on to Winnipeg for the western finals.

Mathews equalized the score for Calles at 1-1, but it was Bobby Graham who scored for Clives to put the Clives in the lead 2-1 at half-time.

Graham made it 4-1 early in the second half, but Clives scored the remainder of the game, with three goals in the second half.

Members of the Vancouver club arrived in the city early Sunday night and expressed their interest in being able to eliminate the Clives from the playoffs.

Bigamist In Suicide Fake Aver Police

Roediger Evidence Search To Result In Spading Up Of Cellar In Toronto Home

Following the weird trail left by George Fritz Roediger, convicted of bigamy in Winnipeg and sentenced to nine years imprisonment, Toronto police who see the whereabouts of his wives mysteriously disappeared from the Ontario capital, have discovered that Roediger was married at least 20 times. They also learn that he has accounts in numerous banks throughout Canada, sufficient to make him a very wealthy man. A masquerade is added to the former German butcher's career by the fact that he tried to fake a suicide last summer by disappearing from a Lake Ontario steamer and leaving, as evidence of his "death," the suitcase and contents shown up right. A new picture of the arch-bigamist is at left, and below at right one of Mrs. Meta Roediger, the wife who accompanied him from Bremen, Germany, and who died of mercury poisoning in St. Catharines, Ont., in 1928.

TORONTO, July 19.—Police working on the disappearance of Mrs. Meta Roediger, wife of the bigamist, Geo. Fritz Roediger, Ont., one of the many wives of Geo. Fritz Roediger, who was sentenced to nine years in the Ontario penitentiary for bigamy, are today every foot of a cellar in a certain house here would be upturned tomorrow. They refused to reveal the location of the house in question.

Roediger is now under sentence at Winnipeg on bigamy and theft charges.

Police also said certain districts of the vicinity of the house would be the scene of digging operations. They refused to say the house in question was the former home of the bigamist on Vaughan road in North Toronto, where Mrs. Roediger was last seen. They denied the outside digging operations would lead to the discovery of the body of the woman in 1928.

It was also learned today United States authorities are searching for Roediger's son who was supposed to have been with his father in Toronto after his marriage to the Alameda woman in 1925.

Police learned today Roediger has more than $60,000 deposited in Toronto banks. In the meantime it is reported a Winnipeg solicitor is en route to Toronto to claim a sum of money to reimburse his client, Mrs. Julia Reesman of Winnipeg, who has financial losses she suffered which led to her conviction for bigamy and subsequent revelation that the German sausage maker had married many women in United States and Canada.

ABERHART SEES FINANCE PANIC REVOLT IN U.S.

Dark Prophecies Are Made
By Premier in Calgary

CALGARY, July 19.—Premier Aberhart, upon the conclusion of his Calgary Prospector Bill Institute, Sunday, said that he was sitting by waiting for the inevitable crash of the present financial system.

Let us stand shoulder to shoulder, each for all and for all for each, said the premier. "The present system is a failure and we must have a change. Let every good citizen who is not a part of the present system stand up and say 'I am not a part of this system.'"

REAL THINKING

Mr. Aberhart told the congregation that during a two week vacation at Vancouver he did "some real thinking" and reviewed from various angles the question, "Can the present financial system be made to function adequately for the welfare of the people?"

"No matter how I approached it, I got the same answer," he stated. "A debt based system cannot function in the modern day. A system that depends wholly on the creation of cash cannot carry on."

Later in his address the premier said: "While I read in Vancouver, there came to me a new conviction that the people of Alberta were being deceived and misled through and through and that I should go on."

MUST LEARN

We must learn to pay no attention to our assailants who utter unpleasant things."

After declaring that the Canada report revealed the public debts of Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia were increasing rapidly, Mr. Aberhart said: "Conditions in the states are far from satisfactory. Papers tell us that the United States is on the verge of a financial collapse and that I should go on."
